Detailed Cruise

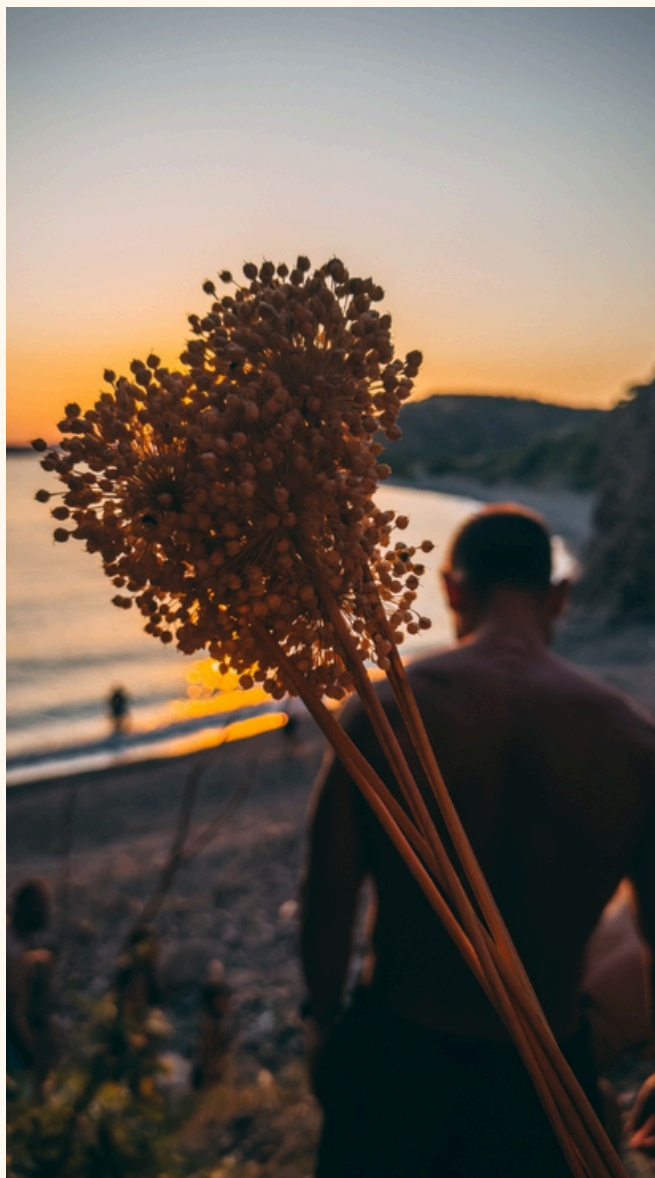

Departure from Agios Fokas Port

The charming little port of Agios Fokas is the starting point for one of the most popular 4-hour private boat trips in Lesvos, offering a perfect blend of history, natural beauty, and relaxation. Near the port and before boarding one can visit the ancient remains of a temple dedicated to Dionysos, dating back to the 1st century BC, and then admire the nearby traditional chapel of Agios Fokas. This picturesque sanctuary, nestled on a hill, offers breathtaking views of the endless blue waters of the Aegean Sea!

Shipwreck - Kommenos Vrahos - Apergousa

Just a short distance from the port, your first stop invites you to snorkel over the shallow waters of a shipwreck, a fascinating underwater site that can also be viewed from the boat deck through our high-quality fish finder. Then follows the stunning Apergousa Beach. A massive rock, known as Kommenos Vrahos (Cut Rock), splits the golden sandy beach in two, creating a scenic haven with hidden caves perfect for swimming and snorkeling. This rock is also an ideal spot for climbing enthusiasts looking to add some adventure to their trip.

Panagia Kryfti

Next stop is the secluded Panagia Kryfti, an enchanted chapel of great historical significance, nestled within a rocky cove. Dive into the crystal-clear waters or relax and enjoy the unique natural hot springs, which rise directly from the sea and are renowned for their therapeutic properties. This secluded destination is a true hidden gem, offering tranquility and the beauty of untouched nature.

Melinda, Ammoudeli

As you sail toward Ammoudeli, you'll be mesmerized by the picturesque village of Melinda, known for its unique blend of traditional Greek architecture and its spectacular beach. Swim in the emerald waters, dive from a spectacular rock, and unwind on the shore, where black and white pebbles meet the gentle waves. Finally, you will sail to the pristine Ammoudeli Beach. Here, you can enjoy one last refreshing swim in the crystal-clear waters of southern Lesvos, a perfect ending to an unforgettable day.
